DEDICATION

The time has come for many of us to decide which path in life we wish to follow. The complexity of the world situation, and the involvement of each one of us in the future of this country, demand that we make this decision with intelligence and foresight.

The strong principles which we have learned and the knowledge which we have gained during the years at Corpus Christi will be an invaluable guide in the planning of our future and the attainment of our Eternity.

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to Mother Gerald for her kindly interest in each Corpus Christian; to Father Jansen for his spiritual guidance and sage advice; to the staff who have so generously given of their time for the education of this graduating class.

To you, the Class of 1963, we dedicate this yearbook, and we entrust to you the task of upholding the standards and traditions of Corpus Christi students.

JUBILATE DEO

To His Excellency, Bishop Cody

Each year, blessings, prayers and hopes of future success have been bestowed upon us in the yearbook message of Most Reverend John C. Cody, Bishop of London. Now as this is the year of his twenty-fifth anniversary as Bishop, let us in our turn pay homage to such a devoted member of the hierarchy.

During the past twelve years he has done a great deal to promote the spiritual welfare of the diocese by the building of Catholic high schools, seminaries and parishes. We at Corpus Christi should be especially thankful to him, for without his permission and help our school might never have come into existence. Therefore in deepest gratitude, the graduates and students of Corpus Christi, thank Bishop John C. Cody for his kind fatherly interest in all our endeavours.

We extend sincere congratulations to him on this occasion and we pray that God will bless him abundantly in his work as Spiritual Head of our diocese.

AD MULTOS ANNOS!

TU ES SACERDOS

To His Excellency, Bishop Carter

This year, we, as well as all London Diocese, have been given a new auxiliary Bishop, Most Reverend Emmett Carter.

Bishop Carter has done a great deal in Quebec toward the revision of English Catholic Education. That he has accomplished much in the field of education is of great significance to us as students. We are honoured to have him as a new spiritual father, to watch over us and guide us with his tremendous fund of knowledge and experience.

To such a man, who has achieved great esteem, may we, the students of Corpus Christi High School, Windsor, say, "Welcome Bishop Carter. We sincerely hope your stay in our city will be a happy one".

His Excellency Most Reverend
GERALD EMMETT CARTER, D.D.
Titular Bishop of Altiburo
Auxiliary Bishop of London, Ontario

Dear Graduates of 1962:

The thoughts of youth are deep, deep thoughts and many of you are giving serious consideration to your vocation. That is good! But in your thought for the future do not overlook the present.

What you are called to be now, what it means to know that you have a place and a work in the world right now--a place uniquely yours--is what is meant by a sense of vocation. You are genuinely called, you are wanted, you are important. God in creating you, the individual you, had that so much in mind that He wrote the fulfillment of your vocation, to be yourself not only into your family, your home, your friends, the incidents of your life, but also into you, your gifts, your disposition, your personality. Your first and primary vocation is to be what God wants you to be here and now--yourself. This is a vocation that nothing can thwart or hinder except your own personal refusal.

And so in the words of the poet:

"To thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

Mother Gerald.

FATHER A. P. JANSEN
VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE DIRECTOR

Dear Graduates:

Mediocrity could be termed one of the primary diseases of our age. Its prime symptom is a lack of discipline. The type of discipline of which I speak is the kind that lifts a man of talent out of the ordinary. Real self-discipline has become an admired virtue, somewhat like a spectator sport. It is admired in an astronaut like John Glenn, it is applauded in a doctor athlete like Roger Bannister, but is it imitated? NO!

That which lifts these men out of the ordinary, the humdrum, yes, the mediocre, is a self-discipline which becomes not apologetic but assertive. They can do this, because with all the talents they possess they have the hunger not for publicity or acclaim but excellence.

Now, you young people are leaving Corpus Christi High School. It is the hope of the staff that you leave it with the desire to rise above the ordinary, above the mediocre--this field of endeavor is flooded. You are armed with the most powerful weapon available to man--TRUTH! Read the words of a Paul Claudel, a Belloc or a Blay, and you will understand what it means to assert, and not to apologize or, in the words of Fr. Traynor, "Take not back one burning truthful word for all the kingdoms of the world. Do not make the bread of truth palatable, buttering it with concessions.

Take up arms against the lie against the shoddy, the half measures and the easy road. That only leads to self destruction. Take upon yourselves the responsibilities that are yours', not to do this makes you a shirker, makes you mediocre. Self-discipline can be the key to a success of which you have not dared dream. With God's help may you find the success you deserve, and may all God's blessings be yours.

Reverend Robert J. Drouillard

Nobility of soul is recognized in the quiet, unassuming manner of those who serve God with true humility. No noise nor loud acclaim announces the presence of the truly Christ-like people in our midst but when they have "passed our way" we realize that their humility was Joy; their faith was God.

This humility and faith, which result from intense Christ-living in a world filled with pride and materialism, radiate beyond the horizons of each day and serve to make a glorious sunset in the evening of life.

In his role as Y.C.S. chaplain for the boys at Corpus Christi High School, Father Robert Drouillard accepted his responsibilities with cheerfulness and he showed untiring zeal in his task of bringing Christ to the students. His was always a kindly manner wherein he did not only show the Way, but he also led others along the way....to Christ.

Y.C.S.

The Y.C.S. groups form part of the national Catholic Action movement known as "The Young Christian Students". The work of these groups is to bring the spirit of Christ into student activities. Similar groups are found in the Catholic High Schools and parishes of the London Diocese and in other centres across Canada.

The costumes range from formal evening wear (dresses, pearls, chokers) to theatrical outfits (capes, hats, masks) and character costumes (pirate, soldier). The students are posed in groups or individually, showcasing their creative designs.

Regular Officer Training Plan (ROTP)

Every young Canadian should know about the opportunity open to High School graduates or University undergraduates through the Regular Officer Training Plan, (ROTP). It combines military training with excellent advanced education through the Canadian Services Colleges — Royal Military College (Kingston, Ont.), Royal Roads (Victoria, B.C.), College Militaire Royal de St. Jean (St. Jean, P.Q.) — or a designated Canadian university.

A college education, character-building military training, leading to the Queen's commission as a naval, army or air force officer, is available to the right young man under the sponsorship of the Department of National Defence.

Full information can be obtained from the Navy, Army, or Air Force Recruiting Officer. Contact him at the:
